

Big C Lumber

When the Three Oaks Big C Lumber retail facility experienced a dangerous and potentially hazardous paint spill, First Response was enlisted to send its Emergency Mitigation Team to secure the building and mitigate the loss.

First Response quickly devised a disaster response plan which we were able to implement within hours of the first notification the loss. In less than 18 hours the store was back to full operation alleviating costly down time and loss of business.

