

Memorial Hospital North Michigan St South Bend, IN

First Response provided remediation of tar pitch contamination at the Memorial Hospital Medical Records Warehouse. Three teams of restoration specialists and technicians were dispatched to the facility where they worked around the clock until the remediation was complete. In addition, the team responded to two emergency water intrusions by providing remediation services and structural drying to avert a potential costly mold remediation in the future.
