

Performance Painting

First Response was dispatched to Performance Painting one Saturday night to help restore the building after a fire loss. Not only was the building damaged from the fire but they also experienced smoke and water damage to various sections of the building. First Response mobilized the specialists and equipment to have the state-of-the-art facility at 75% capacity by Monday morning.

FIRST RESPONSE
Disaster Restoration Specialists